Why MAGNOLIA?

- Provides students and researchers across the state access to reliable, academic peer-reviewed journals and curated, age-appropriate content not available through public searches.
- A vital component in the education of Mississippi students and a significant part of established curriculum. It also serves as a great planning tool for teachers!
- Individuals can access many of the electronic resources available through MAGNOLIA from their home or office computer to assist with work related research.

Our Mission

To provide all Mississippians with free, online access to thousands of full-text articles, research, and resources that can assist them with their educational, professional, and life-long learning endeavors.

MAGNOLIA Training For Schools, Libraries, and Colleges

The Mississippi Library Commission employs a MAGNOLIA consultant that will come to you to train your staff on using MAGNOLIA. Our staff is available to help you with any questions you may have about searches, functions, or even programming.

Types of Training:

- In-person visit
- Virtual with Zoom or Microsoft Teams
- Recorded webinars at MAGNOLIA Library Resources on YouTube

Call 601-432-4004 or email magnolia@mlc.lib.ms.us to schedule training

- Perform a basic or advanced search using EBSCOhost reference resources
- Browse featured, popular, or related articles, journals and magazines, and topics

- Citation tools for reference help are a part of most databases
- Read-aloud feature and adaptive reading levels in Britannica School

- Preparing for a test? LearningExpress Library has the practice tests, eBooks, and study guides to help you get the score you need
- Save favorites, or highly cited articles to folders. Never lose your sources again!

A code, starting with “magn” and ending in four numbers, is needed to access MAGNOLIA. Access is provided through public libraries, public academic, community college, and school libraries.
